

ALBUQUERQUE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dear Members of the APS Community:

Superintendent Reedy has announced her retirement at the end of the 2019-2020 school year, so the Albuquerque Public Schools Board of Education has started its search process for a successor. Superintendent Reedy has built a good foundation for the next superintendent to not only continue but to build upon providing strong academic achievement and wellbeing of our students.

The selection of a new superintendent is the most important decision for any Board of Education to make. We want the best information to select the new superintendent, because we know this choice affects the entire community and the education of thousands of students.

A very important step in this process is the identification of the characteristics and qualifications we are looking for in a superintendent. We invite you to participate in identifying these characteristics by attending a community meeting or taking a short survey on the superintendent search web page. Your input into this process is critical and is a key element to the total selection process.

Here are the community meetings dates and times from which to choose to attend:
